

Peril John Alubbe is the Founder/CEO of ForwardSurge consultants, a management consulting firm. He is also a certified leadership and business coach/consultant with WYLDE International. He is the human capital and leadership development expert in the SNDBX and has over 20 years' experience, working with and coaching executives from corporates such as KCB group, Standard Chartered bank, Oxfam etc, and SMEs. He is simple and pragmatic in his approach. He has top skills in strategic thinking, adaptive learning, personal leadership development and change management. As a leadership expert, Alubbe is also a Board harmonizer, conflict manager and a social architect who generates impact through behaviour change programs. Problem solving, content creation, critical thinking and project management are some key professional skills He possesses. Having authored a number of books on Leadership development, PJ is passionate about Intelligent Leadership. He serves on the FilmLab Kenya board and also Chairs the KIBIA board.